Glen Reyburn joins First National Wealth Management

WEST CHESTER _ First National Wealth Management, a division of First National Bank of Chester County, has named Glen Reyburn as Vice President, Private Banker.

Reyburn, with over twenty years of experience in wealth management, trust and philanthropy, will be responsible for developing new client relationships for First National Wealth Management's Private Bank while serving the private banking needs of high net worth customers.

"Glen has an important position within our organization as we begin our Private Bank and she will be working closely with our customers," said Clay Henry, Executive Vice President of First National's Wealth Management Division.

Reyburn is actively involved in numerous professional and community organizations. She is a former board president of Women's Resource Center, and is a member of the Forum of Executive Women, Association of Fundraising Professional and Partnership for Philanthropic Planning. She also volunteers with the American Red Cross and the Mainline Animal Rescue.

Reyburn, who resides in Paoli, earned her Bachelor of Arts, Cum Laude, from Villanova University and was a Senior Vice President for Davidson Trust Company, Devon, PA. She has also worked in the wealth management fields at DNB Advisors/DNB First, Hudson United Bank, Wilmington Trust, and PNC Bank.
