First National Donates $1,000 to the East End Neighborhood Association

WEST CHESTER – First National Bank of Chester County presented a check for $1,000 to the East End Neighborhood Association on April 29, 2010 at the Association’s Education Fund Gala.

The East End Neighborhood Association Educational Advancement Program is a newly established fund designated to assist working adults with the expense of continuing their education.

“The East End Neighborhood Association Educational Advancement Program will help young adults in the East End realize their dreams of higher education,” said John A. Featherman, Chairman, CEO and President of First National. “The bank is proud to support this worthwhile endeavor.”

First Chester County Corporation and its wholly owned subsidiary, First National Bank of Chester County, is a financial institution with 23 branch offices located in Chester, Montgomery, Delaware, Lancaster and Cumberland counties. Founded in 1863, First National Bank of Chester County is the eighth oldest national bank in the country. First National provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, government entities, non profit organizations, and community service groups.

Wealth Management and Trust Services are provided through First National Wealth Management, a division of First National Bank of Chester County.

Mortgage services are provided through American Home Bank, a division of First National Bank of Chester County.
