

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

June 7, 2010

For more information contact:

Diane Kopec
Public Relations Manager
484/881-4104 - direct
diane.kopec@1nbank.com

First National's Troy B. Vogt Earns Certified Financial Planner Certification

WEST CHESTER – Troy B. Vogt, Portfolio Manager and Banking Officer of First National Wealth Management, a division of First National Bank of Chester County, was recently awarded the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) designation by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc., a non-profit organization located in Washington D.C. whose mission is to benefit the public by granting the CFP® certification and upholding it as the recognized standard of excellence for personal financial planning.

Vogt, a resident of West Bradford, is a graduate of West Chester University. He is actively involved in community organizations as a member and past president of the Thorndale Rotary Club and a member and past treasurer of the West Chester Elks Club.

The CFP® designation is awarded to individuals who demonstrate excellence in the field of financial planning. To qualify for the CFP® certification, an individual must meet certain levels of education, and experience, pass an exam and agree to abide by a code of ethics. The Certified Financial Planner exam covers major planning areas such as personal financial planning, retirement and estate planning as well as tax planning, investment management and ethics.

First Chester County Corporation and its wholly owned subsidiary, First National Bank of Chester County, is a financial institution with 23 branch offices located in Chester, Montgomery, Delaware, Lancaster and Cumberland counties. Founded in 1863, First National Bank of Chester County is the ninth oldest national bank in the country. First National provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, government entities, non profit organizations, and community service groups.

Wealth Management and Trust Services are provided through First National Wealth Management, a division of First National Bank of Chester County.

Mortgage services are provided through American Home Bank, a division of First National Bank of Chester County.

For more information, visit www.1nbank.com or call 1-877-FNB-0100.

#