First National's Troy B. Vogt Earns Certified Trust & Financial Advisor Certification

WEST CHESTER – Troy B. Vogt, Portfolio Manager and Banking Officer of First National Wealth Management, a division of First National Bank of Chester County, was recently awarded the Certified Trust & Financial Advisor (CTFA) designation from the Institute of Certified Bankers (ICB), a nonprofit organization sponsored by the American Bankers Association, in Washington, DC.

Vogt, a resident of West Bradford, is a graduate of West Chester University. He is actively involved in community organizations as a member and past president of the Thorndale Rotary Club and a member and past treasurer of the West Chester Elks Club.

The CTFA designation is awarded to individuals who demonstrate excellence in the field of wealth management and trust. To qualify for the CTFA certification, an individual must meet certain levels of experience and education in the trust profession, pass an exam and agree to abide by a code of ethics. The CTFA exam covers fiduciary and trust activities, personal financial planning, tax law, investment management and ethics.
